

CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF ESGL HOLDINGS LIMITED

Membership

The Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of ESGL Holdings Limited (the “Corporation”) shall consist of three or more directors. Each member of the Committee shall be an “independent director” in accordance with the listing rules of Nasdaq.

At least two members of the Committee must qualify as “nonemployee directors” for the purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board based on recommendations from the nominating and corporate governance committee of the Board. The members of the Committee shall be appointed for one-year terms and shall serve for such term or terms as the Board may determine or until earlier resignation or death. The Board may remove any member from the Committee at any time with or without cause.

Purpose

The purpose of the Committee is to carry out the responsibilities delegated by the Board relating to the review and determination of executive compensation.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Committee shall have the following authority and responsibilities:

- a. To review and approve annually the corporate goals and objectives applicable to the compensation of the chief executive officer (“CEO”), evaluate at least annually the CEO’s performance in light of those goals and objectives, and determine and approve the CEO’s compensation level based on this evaluation. In evaluating and determining CEO compensation, the Committee may consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory note on executive compensation (“Say on Pay Vote”) required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, as applicable. The CEO cannot be present during any voting or deliberations by the Committee on his or her compensation.
- b. To review and approve the compensation of all other executive officers. In evaluating regarding executive compensation, the Committee may consider results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote, as applicable.
- c. To review, approve and, when appropriate, recommend to the Board for approval, incentive compensation plans and equity based plans, and where appropriate or required, recommend for approval by the stockholders of the Corporation, which includes the ability to adopt, amend and terminate such plans. The Committee shall also have the authority to administer the Corporation’s incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans, including designation of the employees to whom the awards are to be granted, the amount of the award or equity to be granted and the terms and conditions applicable to each award or grant, subject to the provisions of each plan. In evaluating such plans, including whether to adopt or terminate plans, the Committee may consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote, as applicable.
- d. To review and approve and, when appropriate, recommend to the Board for approval, any employment agreements and any severance arrangements or plans, including any benefits to be provided in connection with to amend and terminate such agreements, arrangements or plans.
- e. To determine capital stock ownership guidelines for the CEO and other executive officers and monitor compliance with such guidelines.
- f. To review the Corporation’s incentive compensation arrangements to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking, to review and discuss at least annually the relationship between risk management policies and practices and compensation, and to evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate any such risk.

- g. To review and recommend to the Board for approval the frequency with which the Corporation will conduct Say on Pay Votes, taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on frequency of Say on Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, and review and approve the proposals regarding the Say on Pay Vote and the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote to be included in the Corporation's proxy statement.
- h. To review all director compensation and benefits for service on the Board and Board committees at least once a year and to recommend any changes to the Board as necessary.
- i. To oversee, in conjunction with the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee engagement with stockholders and proxy advisory firms on executive compensation matters.

Outside Advisors

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to select, retain and obtain the advice of a compensation consultant as necessary to assist with the execution of its duties and responsibilities as set forth in this Charter. The Committee shall set the compensation, and oversee the work, of the compensation consultant. The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to retain and obtain the advice and assistance of outside legal counsel and such other advisors as it deems necessary to fulfill its duties and responsibilities under this Charter. The Committee shall set the compensation, and oversee the work, of its outside legal counsel and other advisors. The Committee shall receive appropriate funding from the Corporation, as determined by the Committee in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for the payment of compensation to its compensation consultants, outside legal counsel and any other advisors. However, the Committee shall not be required to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of its compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor to the Committee, and the authority granted in this Charter shall not affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of its duties under this Charter.

The compensation consultant(s), outside counsel and any other advisors retained by, or providing advice to, the Committee (other than the Corporation's in-house counsel) shall be independent as determined in the discretion of the Committee after considering the factors.

In retaining or seeking advice from compensation consultants, outside counsel and other advisors (other than the Corporation's in-house counsel), the Committee must take into consideration the factors specified in Nasdaq rule 5605(d)(3)(D). The Committee may retain, or receive advice from, any compensation advisor they prefer, including ones that are not independent, after considering the specified factors. The Committee is not required to assess the independence of any compensation consultant or other advisor that acts in a role limited to consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers or directors and that is generally available to all salaried employees or providing information that is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the consultant or advisor, and about which the consultant or advisor does not provide advice.

The Committee shall evaluate whether any compensation consultant retained or to be retained by it has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(e)(3)(iv) of Regulation S- K.

Structure and Operations

The Board shall designate a member of the Committee as the chairperson. The Committee shall meet at least four (4) times a year at such times and places as it deems necessary to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee shall report regularly to the Board regarding its actions and make recommendations to the Board as appropriate. The Committee is governed by the same rules regarding meetings (including meetings in person or by telephone or other similar communications equipment), action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements as are applicable to the Board.

The Committee may invite such members of management to its meetings as it deems appropriate. However, the Committee shall meet regularly without such members present, and in all cases the CEO and any other such officers shall not be present at meetings at which their compensation or performance is discussed or determined.

The Committee shall review this Charter at least annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

Delegation of Authority

The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities, along with the authority to take action in relation to such responsibilities, to one or more subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.
